MARYVILLE COLLEGE
ESTABLISHED 1819

*Where Chilhowee's lofty mountains
Pierce the southern blue.
Proudly stands our Alma mater,
Noble, grand, and true.*

Chorus

*As thy hilltop crowned with cedars
Ever green appears.
So thy memory fresh shall linger
Through life's smiles and tears.*

Chorus

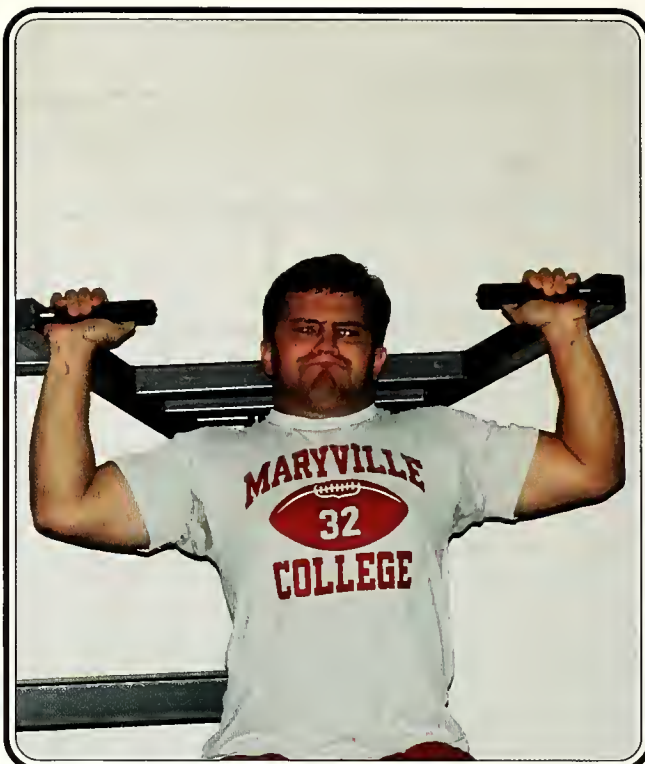

*Lift the chorus, wake the echoes.
Make the welkin ring!
Hail the queen of all the highlands!
Loud her praises sing!*

Chorus

*Orange, Garnet, float forever,
Ensign of our hill!
Hail to thee, our Alma mater.
Hail to Maryville!*

Above: Fall Convocation has become a strong tradition at Maryville College. Many freshmen are forced to attend, whereas many seniors choose to participate in this important ceremony of our heritage.

Below: We are unsure exactly why Dave Downs is dressed in a woman's bra, and we don't really think we need to know.

Right: Kristin Kant really gets down to earth at the 'Big Brothers/Big Sisters Kick-off Party... What a woman!

Below: Adam McCall, Paul Weaver, and Nicki Masters sit right on the edge of life as they do some rock climbing in the late fall.

Above: Eric Obermiller appears to be a little wrapped up at the moment... if you could call back later that would be great!

Above: Chris Noe, Darren McGowen, Kelly Meacham, and Kristin Kant stop to make a very special memory at this year's Wine and Cheese party.

Above: Oh to be back among friends! Debbie Shewfelt, Beckie Heckler, Jeannine Quick, and Sarah Stevenson cherish these moments, as they are few and far between.

Above: Josh Goocey throws his hands in the air as the Big Brothers/Big Sisters Kick-Off party gets into full swing.

Left: A friendship made in America, Edgar Bocarisa (Gibraltar) and Simon Graham (Ireland) enjoy the beauty of the sunset during their first few weeks in America. Both have traveled far to be a part of the Maryville College experience.

Above: Todd Smith and John Reiter trim the greens as they help prepare the CCM for the coming season.

Right: Ahhh Maryville in the spring. What beautiful surroundings we live among.

What in the World!

Maryville College Accomplishments

*For the second year in a row Maryville College has been included in the US News and World Reports for our excellence as an institution. This year we ranked 9th of the Regional Liberal Arts Colleges, and 5th in excellence in teaching. Congratulations to our Students, Faculty, and Staff for a great year of outstanding achievements.

*This year we had incredible enrollment numbers reaching the second highest enrollment ever. As the numbers continue to climb we come closer and closer to our Maryville College 2000 plan goal of 1000 students.

Nadia Edoh's Words of Wisdom:

'The true self is always in motion like music, a river of life, changing, moving, failing, suffering, learning, shining.'

-Brenda Ueland

-This quote most definitely summarizes my 4 years at Maryville College, as I am sure it represents that of many others. Just remember that it is part of life, a part that allows one to grow into a stronger and better person.

I have surely changed, failed at times, suffered, learned, and so do hope that I am now shining!

"One of the most important things I have learned at Maryville College is to appreciate what I have and to never take anything for granted. You will never know how much something means to you until it is gone."

-Rachelle Wells

Marcus Farmer shares his thoughts on the subject:

"Maryville College has taught me many new and different things. However, the most important thing I've learned did not come from a psychology book or a professor's lecture. It did not even happen while I was at Maryville. The most important thing I've learned is that Jesus Christ died for me and is the Lord of my life. It matters not that we've attained academic fame nor that we have our names scribed on the registers of honor societies. All is for naught if your name does not appear in the Lamb's book of life. I wish all of you peace and eternal happiness in God our Father. Romans 10:9-10, Numbers 6:24-26. In Christ alone."

Richard Bender's Words of Wisdom:

"Walk tall with your head up, and your eyes wide open, constantly aware of prevailing forces which may obstruct your path. Be objective to consider changes, for one's life path is never etched in stone, and the direction we often select may not be of our own choosing. Show compassion, for the world truly is a cruel and harsh place, where everyone's strive is for the fast lane. Be different and take a moment to reflect, past friendships and acquaintances, but never forget to carry on our liberal arts learnings."

-Ben Bender, 1996

"Be Challenged. Try new things. Fight for the things you deserve. Attend a lot of bonfires. Go Streaking."

-Kristin Kant

Sheila Pirl gives us her outlook on life...

"I've learned that some of the best times you will have involve getting a little wet, getting a little dirty, or getting a little crazy."

-Live and Learn and Pass It On

"There is a time and place for everything... find your time and use it wisely, find your place and make it personal. It is when you discover the importance of these two things that you will be a part of Maryville and, in turn, Maryville will be a part of you. Fight for your rights, use your voice, share your thoughts and ideas until they are heard, for if you are not being heard you are not being loud enough. Make a difference. Make change happen. Embrace the peacefulness of who you are and where you are going. Make me proud as I go with you, but turn back to remember. Make yourselves proud so you will turn back and remember. Don't ever forget our time and our place. Store it in your book of memories; bring it to reunions. Cherish it always. I know I will."

Sports

"On a good team there are no superstars. There are great players, who show they are great players by being able to play with others, as a team. They have the ability to be superstars, but if they fit into a good team, they make sacrifices, they do things necessary to help the team win. What the numbers are in salaries or statistics don't matter; how they play together does.."

With the completion of a yearbook comes the closing of another year. It is hard to believe this year has passed so quickly yet with a sense of longevity. I know that this time is new and all of you are looking upon it as a fresh start to another year. But take a moment, for me, and think back.

I began this book with the Alma mater. I chose this because that is what this book essentially is, our Alma mater... It is a book that holds our successes and failures. It holds many memories for many different people. So many people don't know the importance of this book until it is too late. In this book is a compilation of many important memories you have yet to realize. My staff and I have tried to capture your faces forever, so that some day, when Maryville is but a memory, you can remind yourselves of all of the wonderful times that we shared.

Where would I be without those who love me? Where would I be without the treasured memories of this book? Where would I be without all of you? I don't really know. I can't even fathom life without Maryville, and in that I can truly say I have had the "Maryville College Experience." You may not know me, or you may be one of my closest friends, but we are all still one and the same. We are all of this place and this place is in each of us. You may not realize that now, but I promise you it is true. It is impossible, in my eyes for it not to be this way.

I want to thank all of my friends for all of their love and support. Sheila and Dave (a.k.a. the MULE)... you are better than any staff I could have wished for. You are both so talented and creative in what you do. To all of my graduating friends... I shall miss you with a deep passion. You have been my support, my guidance, and my confidants since the day you all came into my life. I cannot put in words how much you all mean to me so I won't. I will only tell you that you are all perfection, and of course, you are all whores. To my friends who are not graduating... I am looking forward to making new memories with each of you. Treasured memories.

I challenge you all to go in peace, but fight the war. Be strong both today and forever. Make your Alma mater proud, and be proud of your Alma mater, for there is none other like it. Be your dreams and know your heart. Embrace life and live it, for soon you will look back on it and see what your future held. Hail to thee our Alma mater, Hail to Maryville.
